

APPLICATION NOTE

Excaq configuration steps with illustra cameras running enhanced security mode

System requirements:

Excaq: 9.0
Flex Gen 2 fw: SS004.01.00.01.0432
Pro 12MP FE fw: SS002.01.00.00.0620

Go to the illustra camera GUI and select enhanced security option. Follow the GUI directions for username and password creation and ensure that HTTP authentication is set to Digest. Note that when powering the camera for the first time, the user needs to login with admin/admin then the first window will ask what security mode is desired.

Excaq Procedure:

For cameras that have IP addresses already assigned:

In the Configuration page, expand the name of the server, and expand Configure System.

1. Select Add IP Cameras
2. Select the tab for Find IP Cameras. Rescan the network if necessary, using the Rescan button at the bottom left of the screen.
3. Select the cameras with Enhanced Security by checking the corresponding Add boxes.
4. Click on Add Selected at the bottom right.
5. A pop up will ask for the user name and password for the camera. It will be pre-loaded with the standard default. Change it to the new enhanced user name and password.
6. If changing more than 1 camera to a common user name and password, select the box for "Use for All".
7. Select OK.

If the cameras still have default IP Addresses, use the Address IP camera tab in lieu of Find IP Cameras.

1. Rescan the network using the tab at the bottom left.
2. Select the cameras with Enhanced Security by checking the corresponding Add boxes.
3. Under Network Interface, select the correct NIC for the IP camera network
4. Under Camera Configuration, select Static
5. Specify the IP range
6. Click on Apply to Grid.
7. A pop up will ask for the user name and password for the camera. It will be pre-loaded with the standard default. Change it to the new enhanced user name and password.
8. If changing more than 1 camera to a common user name and password, select the box for "Use for All".
9. Select OK.

Found cameras will relocate to the IP camera list at the top of the page.
